Sparkleworks

Have you ever flown over Ponyland in a hot air balloon? You haven't? Then you need to go for a ride with Sparkleworks.

Rainbow Dash

PANCAKE NIGHT

The sun is setting over Ponyville.
It's just an ordinary evening...

An ordinary evening?
Well, not quite...

Hee, hee, hee!

Oh!
Have you seen that one?

Ha, ha, ha!

And
that one is from the time when we had a big picnic!

Yes!
Hee, hee!
Sweetberry ate everything!

Talking of Sweetberry, where has she got to?

She's gone to the kitchen with Sparkleworks to make us a surprise...

And
it's a surprise that smells yummy!

Mmm!
I wish they'd hurry up - I'm hungry!

Wow!
You're good at tossing pancakes!

I've had lots of practice...do you want to have a go?

It's
a little tricky the first time you do it...

Are
you kidding?
I'm the pancake champion!

Ready...hup!

SPLAT!

Well done, champion! Like I said - it's a little tricky the first time you try it!

Oh, dear... what shall we do?

Don't worry about it. What goes up must come down!

A few minutes later...

Mind, these are hot!

Ooh!
Pancakes!

I love
pancakes!

Who wants the first one?
Chocolate lollipops and cream!

Well, girls,
it's not what you'd call a balanced meal, but...

...it's nice as a treat! Bon appétit!

Watch out for the sticks!

Does anyone want the last pancake?

Ooh, I could manage a little more.

I'm really thirsty now.

I'm going to get a drink from the kitchen...

PLOP!

AAAAAAH !

So, can anyone explain this?

Ha, ha!
I said what goes

THE BALLOON RIDE

This is definitely where Sparkleworks arranged to meet us...

Yes,
but where is she?

Coo-ee!

Oh!

balloon!

Shall I take you for a ride in my new balloon?

The countryside looks fantastic from this high up!

Whoo-hoo!
I'm queen of the world!

You can see our balloon's shadow on the ground.

What's happening? Our shadow's getting bigger...

A light blue Pegasus with a blonde and pink mane is floating in the air. A large, vibrant rainbow arches over her. In the background, there are green trees and a small body of water. A speech bubble from the left says, "We're too heavy! The balloon's sinking!".

We're too heavy! The balloon's sinking!

Sparkleworks, try to steer towards that rainbow!

Rainbow Dash is looking down with a concerned expression. A speech bubble from the left says, "We're going to crash land!".

We're going to crash land!

The hot air balloon, which is yellow and orange with heart and butterfly patterns, is sinking. Rainbow Dash and two other ponies are hanging from the basket. A large rainbow is visible in the background. A speech bubble from the right says, "That was silly, Rainbow Dash! Now we're stuck!".

That was silly, Rainbow Dash! Now we're stuck!

Well done,
Rainbow Dash!

Where are you going?

No-I'll get off and the balloon will go back up!

I'll see you back at our meeting place!

Pinky Pie And The Artist

There's nothing like a walk in the woods for a good think!

I can't come with you: I've got a cake in the oven...

The woods?
No, thanks - there aren't any rainbows in the woods.

Don't go too far, you might get lost.

What a shame no
one wanted to come with me...

Gosh, there's some smoke!

I wonder where that could be coming from...

OH !

What's a house doing here, so far from the village?

There are lots of paintings inside...

Whose house could it be?

What's this?
A little nosy
parker!

?!

It's not very nice to peep through people's windows!

Where must I go so as not to be disturbed by anyone?

I'm very sorry, Miss...

I was just walking past
and...

Well, I don't have time for walking.

I create!

I am an artist!

Ah! So it's you who has painted all those pictures in the house?

But...

Yes, I came to the middle of the forest to find inspiration.

...since I came here, I haven't managed to finish a single painting!

I'm nothing but a failure.

Hmm...

I think you have plenty of inspiration!

Do you really?

Yes, but I don't think you should shut yourself away on your own...

...you need a MODEL!

A month later, there is an exhibition of paintings at the Ponyville museum...

These paintings are fantastic!

Well done!

What do you expect? I'm a living masterpiece!

STORY TIME

A Walk In The Woods

This morning, Sparkleworks and Rainbow Dash are early for school. The funny thing is that they are usually late, but today is different: today, all the Little Ponies are going on a school trip to the woods. These two friends wouldn't miss it for the world!

"Oh! What's going on? The school's shut!" says Sparkleworks.

"Oh, no! I was afraid we'd be late for our day out!" adds Rainbow Dash, her eyes filling with tears.

Ah! Here are the others: Kimono, Minty, Sunny Daze and Pinky Pie, followed by Sweetberry, who is still eating her breakfast.

"The bus! The bus!" cries Minty.

There is just enough time for the teacher to do the register, then all our Little Pony friends hurry on to the bus and clamour for a seat.

"Calm down, children! Quietly!"

The teacher does not know which way to turn! The Little Ponies are so excited about their trip to the woods that they have forgotten their manners. Once everyone is finally sitting down, the driver can set off. During the journey, our little friends tell stories, laugh at jokes and sing songs together...

"All right, everyone – time to get off! We're here!" shouts the driver. Everyone is so excited!

"Stay in a group and don't go too far!" warns the teacher.

The ponies set off walking, looking at everything around them: the fallen leaves, the toadstools...

"Oh, look! A squirrel!"

The Little Ponies seem amazed by the woodland world. Only Sweetberry is lagging behind. She has spotted something more interesting than what the teacher is talking about.

"Mmm, yummy!" she says. "These blackberries are delicious!"

While her friends walk further ahead, Sweetberry disappears into the woods in search of more berries...until she realises she cannot see anyone else.

"Where are they?" she says to herself. "They could have waited for me! Oh, dear! How am I going to find them again?"

Oh, no! Sweetberry is completely lost! Worried, she sits down and begins to cry.

"I must be brave," she sniffs. "I should be all right if I retrace my steps..."

That is just what she does. Sweetberry walks and walks...but the further she goes, the more unfamiliar her surroundings become. Seeing a handkerchief that she has dropped, she realises that she has gone round in a circle!

Desperate, Sweetberry decides to stay where she is and wait for someone to come and find her. While she waits, she lays out in front of her all the things she has found: leaves of different shapes and colours, some twigs, some acorns...but she soon begins to feel bored. "Yeeoow!" cries Sweetberry. What has happened? Something has dropped on the Little Pony's head! "Oh! It's a nut!" she exclaims. "Yum yum – I love nuts!" While Sweetberry munches her unexpected snack, another nut lands right beside her. Fascinated, she looks up at the sky. She doesn't see anything at first, but after several more nuts bounce off her head, she looks more carefully. Sweetberry realises that hidden amongst the huge tree leaves is a tiny squirrel, who is laughing heartily at the joke he has played on her.

"That's naughty!" cries Sweetberry. "I suppose you think it's funny! Wait, don't go..."

But it begins to pour with rain and the squirrel disappears into the trees. Sweetberry is wondering where to shelter when she spots an enormous old tree nearby that has an opening in its trunk.

"Wow!" she exclaims. "That's almost as big as a house!"

Sweetberry didn't know how right she was: inside the tree is a family of rabbits – Daddy Rabbit, Mummy Rabbit and their four kittens. All six of them are frightened of Sweetberry. The little rabbits have never met a Little Pony before. Sweetberry tries to reassure them: "Don't be scared!" she says. "I don't mean any harm!"

Our little friend tells them the story of how she came to be lost in the woods. Having listened intently, Daddy Rabbit comes over and says in his little voice:

"I can help you to find your way back, if you agree to help us, too."

"Oh, of course I will," Sweetberry smiles. "What can I do for you?"

"Well, we are from a big city and we are going to stay with our cousin in the country. We still have a long way to go and our children are very tired -they're still only babies. If you take us on your back, that would be much quicker!"

Without hesitating for a second, Sweetberry helps her new friends on to her back. Following Daddy Rabbit's directions, she gallops to the edge of the woods, where she finds the other Little Ponies again.

"Oh, look! It's Sweetberry!" they cry.

"But where have you been?" asks the teacher. "We've been looking for you everywhere!"

"It's a long story," Sweetberry replies, a little out of breath.

"Come on! Everyone on the bus!"

"I'm coming! But first...um...I have something to do..."

Sweetberry races off out of sight to a nearby field to drop off the Rabbit family.

"There you are. Now we can go our separate ways," she smiles. "Good luck with the rest of your journey!"

"Goodbye, little Sweetberry! Hee, hee, hee!" giggle the rabbits.

And so, this is a story with a happy ending: Sweetberry found her way back safely and she also made some new friends. One thing is certain: none of it would have happened had she not loved her food so much!

The Perfect Pony

Take all the best bits of your favourite ponies or create your own designs, then draw them on the silhouette below to create your perfect pony.

The Enchanted Mask

Sunny Daze loves rummaging through the castle attic. She always finds something interesting there. One Sunday afternoon, she decides to take Rainbow Dash, Minty and Wisteria, her three best friends, to her special place.

"Where are we going?" asks Minty.

"It's a surprise!"

"Oh! I know this place: it's the castle!" grumbles Rainbow Dash. "Is that your surprise?"

"Shush! Follow me..."

The friends follow the staircase to the top, where Sunny Daze explains that they will have to go up a ladder to get to the attic.

"Come on! Be brave!"

"It's too high!" complains Minty. "I should have stayed with Sweetberry to try her sardine and jam cakes with delicious hot chocolate and cinnamon..."

"Don't be silly! We're going to have some fun!" Sunny Daze says eagerly. She is the only one, though, who can see what's so good about this little expedition...

At the top, the ponies suddenly come to an impressive door. There seems to be a strange atmosphere in this part of the castle...

Sunny Daze pushes the huge door and invites Rainbow Dash, Minty and Wisteria to follow her in. A little anxious, they go in on tiptoe, huddling together.

"Aaa...atchoo! It's really dusty in here!"

"Huh! There's just piles of old stuff – let's go!" says Wisteria.

Suddenly, Minty comes across a marvellous book. A book? Sunny Daze has never seen it before.

"Let me see! It's called The Book of..."

"Hmm...I can't quite read it..."

"...of Mysteries!"

"The Book of Mysteries? But what is it?"

Could it be a book of magic? Wisteria opens it and begins to read while Minty and Rainbow Dash go over to a trunk full of costumes.

"Oh! Look at this mask! It's lovely!"

While they look at what they've found,

Wisteria carries on trying to make out what is written in the old book.

Putting on a serious voice, she reads out the strange words:
 "Arali trouverus que li mascus...oh, I don't understand any of it at all!"

"It doesn't matter," whispers Minty, "carry on!"

"Practis etteram...Plum! Zazarius..."

What is happening? Rainbow Dash is pointing frantically to the trunk.

"The mask! The mask moved!" she cries.

"Artific nactea..." Sunny Daze continues.

FZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZ!

Suddenly, the mask flies through the air like an arrow, damaging any furniture or clothes in its path. To escape this whirlwind, the Little Ponies run and hide in a wardrobe. Gradually, silence returns. When they peep out of their hiding place, the mask has disappeared. In a panic, they run out of the attic and down the staircase. But at the bottom, they get a shock: the mask has ransacked the castle!

With a blanket in her hand, Minty jumps on the mask and manages to catch it. The ponies feel relieved and the mask seems calm.

"This mask is so strange!" says Minty. "Two minutes ago, it was going mad and now it's an ordinary mask again!"

Kimono comes in and interrupts her friends:
"It's not that ordinary! Look what I found in the library archives!"

While she was looking for information on the Ponyville Grand Carnival, Kimono has found an old newspaper that tells the strange story of an enchanted mask...

"Let me see the mask, Minty," says Kimono.

There is no doubt: the mask in the Ponyville newspaper looks just like the one from the attic! The story says that the mask is enchanted; it has magic powers and those who have worn it have mysteriously disappeared for several days, before waking up in their own bed remembering nothing of what has happened.

"That's all very mysterious," says Minty. "I'd like to try that mask on."

"You're mad!" exclaims Sunny Daze. "What if you disappear forever?"

But Minty has already put the mask on.

"Hey, that mask suits you! You look like a princess - go and have a look in the mirror!"

Suddenly, Minty begins to feel strange and, little by little, disappears.

"Oh, but...what's happening to me? Goodb-"

Minty wakes up to see Kimono holding a sports trophy.

"That's funny – Kimono doesn't like sport," she thinks.

Then Sunny Daze comes in, carrying a delicious bacon and banana cake drizzled with strawberry mint juice.

"Very strange," Minty says to herself.

"It's usually Sweetberry who cooks us nice snacks..."

Now Sweetberry appears, wearing spectacles and reading a book.

"But...Kimono's the one who normally reads stories!"

Rainbow Dash, who loves sliding down rainbows, is picking up socks!

"This is a topsy-turvy world!" thinks Minty, in a panic. "Hey, everyone! Is this your idea of a joke?"

Minty tries to speak but no one seems to see or hear her. It is as if she has become a ghost...

When Minty wakes up in her bed, her friends are round her.

"Well?" asks Kimono.

"Well what?" Minty replies. "Why is there a mask in my hand?"

Minty has forgotten her journey to the land of dreams, and the mystery of the enchanted mask will remain a mystery forever. That same evening, Sunny Daze takes the mask back up to the attic and buries it at the bottom of the trunk. She sticks a label to it that says: 'Beware! This mask is enchanted!'

Who knows? Maybe one day, another curious Little Pony will discover the mystery of the magic mask!

The Magic of Christmas

Christmas is coming and no one in Ponyville can think of anything but the big party being held at the castle to celebrate! Unfortunately, there are still so many things to do that the Little Ponies don't know if they're coming or going; in fact, nothing is going quite to plan...

"It's freezing today! Oh, I see the castle decorations are, um, coming along," jokes Sweetberry as she comes in.

"Very funny," grumbles Rainbow Dash. "You could help me put up this garland."

While Sweetberry hurries off to the kitchen to finish baking her little rainbow berry biscuits, Sunny Daze, Pinky Pie, Sparkleworks and the others have a go at decorating the big castle hallway.

"Whose idea was it to have such a huge Christmas tree?" asks Sunny Daze. "We're going to need tons of tinsel and baubles!"

"I've just found a bagful in the cellar," says Pinky Pie. "If one of you goes up that ladder, I can pass you the decorations and you can put them on the tree."

Minty, who is not scared of anything, climbs up the ladder and waves.

"Coo-ee, everyone!" she calls, balancing on one leg. "Oh, oh...help!"

In trying to be too clever, Minty tumbles from the ladder and lands on the bag of Christmas baubles.

"Oh, well done! Now the baubles are all broken!" scolds Kimono.

"We'll never be ready in time!" wails Rainbow Dash, seeing garlands fall from the ceiling and needles beginning to drop from the tree.

Our little friends are not really cut out for putting up decorations. What a disaster! All their efforts have been wasted. The Little Ponies are crestfallen. Pinky Pie and Kimono decide to go for a walk and have a rethink.

"There's something shining over there!" exclaims Pinky Pie.

"Oh! What is it? Let's go and see," suggests Kimono.

The two friends head off towards the strange light...they run like lightning, the wind in their manes, across the snow-covered fields of Ponyville. As they get nearer, the light gets bigger and leads them to a clearing just beyond the lavender hill.

"You go first," says Kimono.

"No, you! You're the bravest one," Pinky Pie replies.

Kimono walks on slowly, but trips on a stone and goes somersaulting down to the bottom of the hill.

"I've just found the most amazing thing!" she cries.

It's a star! A twinkling star, on a sparkling wand! Incredible though it may seem, the wand begins to dance and twirl in the sky, leaving a shimmering trail of gold, silver, pink and blue stars. Kimono looks on, transfixed, and is soon joined by Pinky Pie.

"All those lights...they're beautiful!" gasps Pinky Pie.

"It's magical!" agrees Kimono. "Do you think I could make a wish? I wish I could fly!"

As soon as she has said it, the wand begins to glow brightly and Kimono is magically whisked up in a swirl of stars...

Pinky Pie and Kimono realise that the wand is magic and that it could make all their wishes come true. The two friends decide to take it back with them so that it can help them decorate the castle...

The little wand is so pleased to have made new friends that it lights up everything in its path and leaves thousands of stars behind it, each more beautiful than the last. Ponyville is covered in shimmering lights and the Little Ponies are delighted.

Pinky Pie and Kimono arrive at the castle and see that no more decorations have been put up. Things have even got worse: the garlands are torn and the baubles are smashed; Sunny Daze and Rainbow Dash are squabbling; Sparkleworks and Sweetberry have given up and are eating the cakes meant for the party.

Drastic action is needed if the Christmas party is to take place as planned...

"I've got a surprise for you," says Kimono.

"Oh, yes? Have you got the magic formula to get the castle decorated in the blink of an eye?" asks Minty.

"And why not?" smiles Kimono, holding up the wand.

"This is a magic wand," Pinky Pie adds, "and it can help us! Can't you, little wand?"

Suddenly, the beautiful star begins to glow very brightly...and to spin all round the room.

"Look at all those wonderful stars!" gasps Rainbow Dash.

Everyone is smiling again. Wisteria puts on some music and the Little Ponies dance around wildly, singing at the top of their voices.

"La la la...tra la la la la!"

The garlands twirl in the air, back into place; the baubles that are scattered on the floor are magically hung on the tree. Kimono, who didn't know how she would put up the star, begins to fly to the top of the tree with it. Everything is now easy: all they have to do is wish for what they want. The castle is gradually transformed into a fairytale palace, showered with shimmering stars and beautiful decorations...

The dancing Little Ponies are enjoying themselves so much, none of them notices that the wand has disappeared. It is Sweetberry, coming from the kitchen with her delicious freshly-baked cakes, who realises.

"Hey, everyone! Where's the magic wand?"

Sunny Daze, Pinky Pie, Rainbow Dash and Minty look around them and, realising that the wand has vanished, forget to watch what they're doing and fall over each other.

"But there'll be no more magic now! Oh! Watch out!"

Luckily, the ponies don't hurt themselves. Just the opposite: they laugh at what has happened.

"Ha, ha, ha! Oops a-daisy!" giggles Minty.

The Christmas party was a great success, after all. As for the little wand, no one in Ponyville ever saw it again. But our little friends will never forget it. Sweetberry even made up a recipe in its honour: Christmas Star Biscuits!

Well, it's normally Kimono who sorts all that out...

And the castle hallway is ever so big!

Boo hoo! I knew it! Nobody wants me!

...and something shiny!

Later, at the castle...

Where has everyone got to? We need to get ready for the Christmas party.

SURPRI-I-I-ISE!

That's wonderful! Where did you find such a fantastic tree?

We thought you'd be glad that we've done everything for you...

I was the one who went to get the rainbow ribbons!

And I caught the stars to decorate it with!

Thank you all very much. This is a magical Christmas!
